

(over)

To conduct this review, Perdue ordered all Cabinet agencies and all boards and commissions with rule-making powers located within cabinet agencies to participate in the review of all the state's rules and regulations. The executive order also urged the heads of Council of State agencies, the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina, the State Board of Community Colleges, the State Board of Education, and all other boards with rule-making authority to participate.

#